

MYSTERY READERS

WANTED!

Author's Week is just around the corner and we are looking for volunteers to be Mystery Readers in their children's classroom. Author's week will be the week of Feb. 4-8, 2008 and will feature former Pennekamp parent and author/illustrator Michael Wright. During the week Michael will be giving presentations to all the classes. Parents add to the fun and excitement of the week by choosing a book to read from, dressing up as a character from that book and surprising a classroom by coming in and reading to them.

Who?: Anyone who loves to read to kids!

How?: Start with a favorite book, find a costume for it and then we'll help you schedule a time with the teacher to come in and read.

When?: All during the week of Feb. 4-8, 2008.

Why?: Because it is so much fun for your child, their class and YOU!

INTERESTED?

Fill out the section below and return it in your child's Tuesday envelope. For more information or suggestions contact Shirley Ritter at 310-798-7932 or email at SCANDC@aol.com.

Author's Week Mystery Reader Volunteer Form

Your name: _____

Child's name & teacher: _____

Child's name & teacher: _____

Your phone number: _____

Would you be willing to read to another class? _____

SHHHH!

(Remember to keep it a secret -- We want to surprise the kids!)

DEK